

ABOUT US

Who We Are

The ECC is a non-profit organization comprised of local professionals and parent volunteers who work together to create opportunities and advocate for programs that benefit children and their families.

Mission Statement

We aim to educate, advocate and provide services, resources and information that improve upon the growth and development of families with young children in the Gravelbourg and district area.

Vision Statement

Our vision is a community where all families with young children feel loved, respected, and encouraged to develop to their fullest potential, starting with a good foundation to becoming lifelong learners.
