

Donovan Fehr

Donovan, a dedicated member of Gravelbourg since 2015, is passionate about community involvement. He actively contributes to local initiatives like the Renaissance Gaiety Theatre, minor baseball, and the karate club. A proud father of a five-year-old, Donovan shares his commitment to Gravelbourg with his wife, Paige.

With nine years of experience in the financial sector and a joint business venture since 2018, Donovan brings a unique perspective to local development. Recognizing Gravelbourg's untapped potential, he aims to address key community concerns.

If elected, Donovan will prioritize improving aging infrastructure, a focus on affordability, and continuing the efforts promoting Gravelbourg as a desirable place to live, work, and visit.
